Subject: RE: Overtime Report

Hi Mark,

Yes, the report you received from Don is an FY2016 YTD Overtime Expenditure report I compiled. In the future if you should need any salary or expenditures reports, please do not hesitate to contact me. I have attached reports of Overtime expenditures for FY2014 and FY2015. Please keep in mind that the amounts do not include the associated ERE (employer related expenditures) and certain accounts were paid by different entities/groups. For example the Health Care Fraud group has 75% of their expenses paid for by the Feds. The report does subtotal the hours and dollars for each employee for the year.

If you would like, we could meet to go over the reports in more detail or provide any clarification? Just let me know.

AOBJ is an accounting acronym that is used to code various expenditures in the State Accounting System.

Please let me know if there is anything else you need or have any questions.

Subject: Overtime Report

Good afternoon, Phillip. I received a report last week from Don Conrad titled "List of Payroll Transactions by Accounting Unit by AOBJ for Pay Period Ending October 23rd, 2015". I'm not sure if this report is from your area or perhaps payroll so I am seeking some guidance. What I am looking for is the same report for all SIS personnel for FY '13-14 and FY '14-15 to better gauge overtime expenditures over a period of time. Can you also explain what AOBJ means?

Many thanks!
Mark

I will need search terms, outside email addresses, and AGO email accounts to conduct a good search. If I need to search AGO email accounts of staff that have terminated their State service, it would be helpful to know who they are so I can ensure that ISS reactivates their account (if necessary) before running the search.

Hello Bethany,

I just spoke to Paul Ahler and he is going to set up a PRR meeting to discuss the various aspects of this PRR. John can probably hold off until this meeting is concluded to determine exactly what will be released.

This investigation started December 2013.

Hey, John,

Happy Friday!

I'm not sure of the easiest way for you to conduct the search we need done, but, we'll need to search for emails from everyone that is currently in CRM and also Finance in addition to everyone that's been in either division/section over the course of the past few years. I guess if nothing will really come up outside of these divisions, maybe we just use the search terms and dates rather than inputting a list of employees? Charlie believes these will be the only divisions that have anything.

If you want me to ask HR for a list of all the employees, let me know. I'm not sure what's easiest-thoughts? The original PRR is below for your reference.

We can use search terms BRC, Biological Resource Center, and body-donor and then narrow the search from the time the investigation began until present. Charlie- I should've asked on the phone- but what date should we begin searching from?

Arizona Attorney General Mark Brnovich:

In accordance with the Arizona Public Records Law (A.R.S. §§ 39-121 through 39-121.03), I write to request that you make available for inspection and copying the following public records:

≈ Any records involving body-donor facilities and operators in Arizona, including, but not limited to Biological Resource Center.

The Arizona Republic's request includes, but is not limited to: sent, deleted and archived e-mails, memos, text messages and any other form of a public record.

As you know, this request is made in my capacity as a journalist for a non-commercial purpose -- specifically, gathering and reporting news to the public.

If you can provide copies of the records electronically, please send them to me at this email address. If they can be made available by disk, I would be happy to make arrangements with you to pick up a copy. I will pay reasonable costs of photocopying or reproducing the records, up to $10, but wish to inspect the records first and order copies after inspection.

As you know, "public records" are defined broadly by Arizona law. All public records are presumed open to public inspection, absent a specific statutory exemption to the contrary. As the Arizona Attorney General's Office has observed, any doubts about the scope of the public's right of access "should be resolved in favor of disclosure."

If you believe that portions of the records sought are exempt from disclosure, the law requires that you segregate or redact those portions of the records and make the non-exempt records available for inspection and copying.

Please provide a log of redacted material.

The Arizona Public Records Law requires that public bodies provide access to public records "promptly." I prefer to receive these records as they become available. If you will be unable to meet this deadline, please contact me as soon as possible so we can discuss the reasons for any delay.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Hello Don,

Regarding the development of the Local Board's decision to seek private counsel, and as I explained to Chief Perkovich yesterday, the Local Board does have an in-house attorney (Steve Duplissis) who was providing guidance related to its normal course and scope of business. However, our in-house counsel ultimately advised the board to seek out outside counsel that had an expertise guiding local boards in matters related to applications for accidental disability. Acting on that advice, in March 2015, the local board sought outside counsel, following the procurement guidelines provided by the A.G.O.'s procurement department.

I am happy to provide copies of the memos sent to procurement upon request.

Regarding the legal requirements and background of PSPRS, you may be interested in the following links, as described below:

This is a document that highlights all of the laws that apply to the Public Safety Personnel Retirement System (PSPRS):

http://psprs.com/sys_psprs/2011%20PSPRS%20statutes--clean_%20FINAL.pdf – In it, you will find the requirement of the local board to adopt rules of local board procedure, and requires the adoption and use of the model uniform rules of local board procedure if it does not have its own. Our board adopted the model uniform rules (see here: http://psprs.com/Admin_Training/Model%20Rules%20of%20Local%20Board%20Procedure/Local%20Board%20PSPRS%20Model%20Rules%20of%20Local%20Board%20Procedure%20as%20revised%20by%20R%20%20Snodgrass%20and%20PSPRS%20Staff.pdf)

More specifically, this is a link to the statute that institutes the PSPRS Local Boards and their duties (ARS 38-847):

Moving forward, the process to review/approve bills for Ryan, Rapp & Underwood is as follows:

- 1) Accounting will send the received bill to Autumn Maya (SIS) to ensure payment.
- 2) Autumn will have Lauren Buhrow (SIS) review the bill and initial as reviewed, returning the bill to Autumn.
- 3) Autumn will give me that statement to have Don Conrad "OK TO PAY" and I will return it to Autumn.
- 4) SIS will enter it into ProcureAZ attaching the approved itemized statement from Don Conrad.

I realize this seems convoluted, but it must be signed off and approved by an attorney for payment of legal services.

Accounting - Don has approved all the bills in questioned and I will forward them to you via email. They are all already been entered into ProcureAZ. Please let me know if it is necessary to undo any of that process. Thanks for your patience. Lisa

I don't know what happened to it after my procurement letter went to Jerry, but it didn't go to him while it was in my hands. The order of events went from the board to Procurement. I didn't have anything to do with the contracting after it went to Jerry. However, per the statute, the fee approvals are a local board decision.

Hi Leslie,

I know there has been some question with regard to why the office is paying for the PSPRS Local Board's attorneys' fees. I recently sent this to Don Conrad in response to his questions. Should additional people ask you in the future, you may refer them to ARS 38-847 (N), which states:

“The fees of the medical board and of the local board's independent legal counsel and all other expenses of the local board necessary for the administration of the system shall be paid by the employer and not the board of trustees or system at such rates and in such amounts as the local board shall approve. Legal counsel that is employed by the local board is independent of the employer and any employee organization or member and owes its duty of loyalty only to the local board in connection with its representation of the local board.”

I hope this helps you address any questions that are posed to you. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lauren

I don't want to give him the materials from the investigation as he should get those thru discovery from the county. I want to see whatever file I have on him. Did I send a letter with the conflict referral to MCAO? That we should produce.

Dear Mia,

Pursuant to A.R.S. Sec. 39-121.03 (the Arizona Public Records Law), I hereby formally request the following:

-The entire personnel file of Wesley Dison, a member of the attorney general's staff.

Please call me at (520) 617-4713 if you have any questions regarding this request. I would like to pick up this information as soon as possible, or have it faxed to (520) 884-4644.

The foregoing request is for a "non-commercial purpose" as defined in the Arizona Public Records Law and the reproduction of the foregoing documents/tapes will not be used for a commercial purpose. Nevertheless, if needed, I shall be glad to pay for the cost of the copies or tape duplication.

Please provide a response to my request as soon as possible. Please be advised that, in the event my request for the foregoing documents/tapes is denied, I shall take whatever action I deem appropriate, including the filing of a special action in Superior Court, to secure my rights under Arizona Law.

If you are not the appropriate person to fulfill this request, I would appreciate it if you let me know who is and I will send it to him or her.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in this matter.

Called Into Doubt by Griffis v. Pinal County, Ariz.App. Div. 2,
August 4, 2006

141 Ariz. 487
Supreme Court of Arizona, In Banc.

Lawrence W. CARLSON, Plaintiff/Appellant, v.
PIMA COUNTY, a body politic, and Clarence
Dupnik, Sheriff, Defendants/Appellees.

No. 17196-PR. | May 29, 1984.

Inmate of county jail brought defamation action against, inter alia, county sheriff arising from release of offense report implicating inmate in alleged assault on another inmate. The Superior Court of Pima County, John G. Hawkins, J., granted directed verdict in favor of sheriff, and inmate appealed. The Court of Appeals, 687 P.2d 1272, affirmed, and petition for review was granted. The Supreme Court, Feldman, J., held that: (1) public records statute requires keeping of records sufficient to provide the public with knowledge of all of the activities of a public officer and of the manner in which he conducts his office and performs his duties; (2) all records required to be made, maintained and preserved by public records statute are to be available for inspection and copying, subject to official's discretion to deny or restrict access when recognition of the interests of privacy, confidentiality, or the best interest of the state in carrying out its legitimate activities outweigh the general policy of open access; (3) offense report was public record; and (4) release of offense report was protected against defamation action by qualified privilege.

Court of Appeals' opinion approved as supplemented.

Public records statute creates mandate requiring all officers to make and maintain records reasonably necessary to provide knowledge of all activities they undertake in furtherance of their duties, broadly defines those records which are open to public for inspection and thus obviates need for any technical distinction between "public records" or "other matters" insofar as right to inspection by public is concerned. A.R.S. §§ 39-121, 39-121.01, 39-121.01, subd. B.

Common-law limitations to open disclosure of public records are not based on any technical dichotomy which might be argued under the "public records" or "other matters" wording of public records statute, but rather, are based on conflict between public's right to openness in government, and important public policy considerations relating to protection of either confidentiality of information, privacy of persons or concern about disclosure detrimental to best interests of state. Opinion

FELDMAN, Justice.

Lawrence W. Carlson, the plaintiff in a defamation suit against Pima County and its Sheriff, Clarence Dupnik, petitions this Court for review of a decision of the court of appeals, 141 Ariz. 517, 687 P.2d 1272 (App.1984), affirming a verdict directed in favor of defendants. We accepted review to examine and clarify the concept of "public records" and the public's right of access thereto. We have jurisdiction under A.R.S. § 12-2101(B) and Rule 23, Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure, 17A A.R.S.

Facts

The facts are not in dispute. On March 19, 1981, Lawrence Carlson (plaintiff), an inmate of the Pima County Jail, was implicated in an alleged assault on another inmate. The names of the three alleged offenders *489 1244 and the details of the incident were written up in an "offense report." On a routine "beat check," a United Press International reporter obtained the information in the report. The story he wrote named the three alleged offenders and, when viewed in its worst light, told the public that Carlson had been accused of forcible oral sex with another inmate.

On July 20, 1981 Carlson filed a complaint for defamation against Pima County, the individual members of the Pima County Board of Supervisors, Pima County Sheriff Clarence Dupnik, and the Pima County Corrections Director. The case was tried before a jury. At the end of plaintiff's case, the court directed a verdict for all of the defendants except Sheriff Clarence Dupnik. Sheriff Dupnik was granted a directed verdict at the close of all the evidence; it is from the judgment entered on this verdict that plaintiff appealed. The court of appeals affirmed, holding that the trial court had not erred in directing a verdict for the Sheriff.

The court of appeals held that Sheriff Dupnik was a "public officer," A.R.S. § 39-121.01(A)(1). The court noted that the Sheriff must receive all persons committed to the jail and provide them with necessities, A.R.S. § 31-121; the Sheriff is charged with keeping the peace, A.R.S. § 11-441(A)(1); and he must "take charge of and keep the county jail and the prisoners therein", A.R.S. § 11-441(A)(5). Therefore, reasoned the court, the offense report was a public record which the Sheriff had the duty to make. Thus, the court concluded the public had a right of access to the report and its publication was privileged as a matter of law. Plaintiff challenges these conclusions.

What Constitutes Public Records or Other Matters for the Purposes of the Public's Right to Inspection?

Arizona's public records statutes, Title 39, provide a broad right of inspection to the public:

Public records and other matters in the office of any officer at all times during office hours shall be open to inspection by any person.

A.R.S. § 39-121 (emphasis supplied). However, Title 39 does not contain a definition of "public records" or "other matters". A 1975 enactment amended the public records statutes considerably, but still provides no definitions. Prior to these amendments, this Court had defined a public record¹ as:

one made by a public officer in pursuance of a duty, the immediate purpose of which is to disseminate information to the public, or to serve as a memorial of official transactions for public reference. [citations omitted]

Also a record is a 'public record' which is required by law to be kept, or necessary to be kept in the discharge of a duty imposed by law or directed by law to serve as a memorial and evidence of something written, said or done. [citations omitted].

It has also been held that a written record of transactions of a public officer in his office, which is a convenient and appropriate method of discharging his duties, and is kept by him as such, whether required by the express provision of law or not, is admissible as a public record. [citations omitted].

Mathews v. Pyle, 75 Ariz. 76, 78-79, 251 P.2d 893, 895 (1952). The 1975 amendment of A.R.S. § 39-121.01(A) and (B) appear to define those matters to which the public right of inspection applies more broadly. The statute requires a public "officer" to maintain all records reasonably necessary or appropriate to maintain an accurate knowledge of their official activities and of any of their activities which are supported by funds from the state or any political subdivision thereof.

A.R.S. § 39-121.01(B). The 1975 amendments define an officer for purposes of this article as:

*490 1245 any person elected or appointed to hold any elective or appointive office of any public body and any chief administrative officer, head, director, superintendent or chairman of any public body.

A.R.S. § 39-121.01(A)(1).

¹¹ Section 39-121.01(B) creates a statutory mandate which, in effect, requires all officers to make and maintain records reasonably necessary to provide knowledge of all activities they undertake in the furtherance of their duties. We think that the objective implicitly expressed in § 39-121.01 is to broadly define those records which are open to the public for inspection under § 39-121, thus obviating the need for any technical distinction between "public records" or "other matters," insofar as the right to inspection by the public is concerned. Cf. Mathews v. Pyle, supra. In so holding, we approve of dispensing with an initial determination of whether a document is a "public record" or an "other matter" and moving directly to a determination of whether or not the countervailing interests enunciated in Mathews v. Pyle, supra, override the policy of disclosure. See Little v. Gilkinson, 130 Ariz. 415, 636 P.2d 663 (App.1981), and Church of Scientology v. City of Phoenix, 122 Ariz. 338, 594 P.2d 1034 (App.1979).

The Public's Right of Inspection

Despite the unlimited disclosure expressed by the wording of § 39-121, the availability of records for public inspection is not without qualification. There are numerous statutory exemptions to the general "open access" policy toward public records; for example: adoption records (A.R.S. §§ 8-120 and 8-121); consumer fraud investigations by the State Attorney General's Office (§ 44-1525); the records of the Department of Health Services (§§ 36-105, 36-136G(18), 36-340, 36-509, 36-714(B)(1)).

^[2] ^[3] In Mathews v. Pyle, supra, by case law we recognized a limitation on the disclosure required by A.R.S. § 39-121. Various limitations were generally recognized by the common law, see 66 Am.Jur.2d Records and Recording Laws § 12 (1973). Mathews v. Pyle, supra, however, dealt with a report which this Court determined not to be a public record, but which fell within the "other matters" wording of A.R.S. § 39-121. After defining the particular report as an "other matter," we qualified the statutory right of public inspection, recognizing the countervailing interests where the document is either confidential or disclosure would be detrimental to the best interests of the state. Id., 75 Ariz. at 80, 251 P.2d at 896. Arguably, since Mathews v. Pyle dealt specifically with something determined to be an "other matter," rather than a public record, that decision could be construed as adopting a qualified limitation on access only for "other matters," with no limitation of access to those records defined as "public records". We hold today that the common law limitations to open disclosure are not based on any technical dichotomy which might be argued under the "public records" or "other matters" wording of A.R.S. § 39-121, but rather are based on the conflict between the public's right to openness in government, and important public policy considerations relating to protection of either the confidentiality of information, privacy of persons or a concern about disclosure detrimental to the best interests of the state. This has been the general basis for the common law rule. The enactment of A.R.S. § 39-121.01 did not expressly limit the doctrine of Mathews v. Pyle and we do not believe that the current statutory scheme, which is all-inclusive in its requirements of record keeping, was intended by the legislature to overrule the balancing scheme adopted in Mathews v. Pyle. However, we do think that the combined effect of § 39-121 and §§ 39-121.01; 121.02 and 122 evince a clear policy favoring disclosure.

^[4] These qualifications as to public access do not preclude inspection entirely even where the competing interests of the common law limitations override the public's right to inspect certain documents. Particularly where the competing interest *491 1246 is one of confidentiality or privacy, a practical alternative to the complete denial of access would be deleting specific personal identifying information, such as names. Other alternatives exist. In Mathews v. Pyle, supra, we ordered an in camera inspection of the document by the trial court for judicial consideration of whether the Mathews interest-balancing applied. In camera inspection was also approved by the court of appeals in Little v. Gilkinson, supra.²

^[5] In light of our statutory policy favoring disclosure, we think that the best procedure is that all records required to be kept under A.R.S. § 39-121.01(B), are presumed open to the public for inspection as public records. While access and disclosure is the strong policy of the law, the law also recognizes that an unlimited right of inspection might lead to substantial and irreparable private or public harm; thus, where the countervailing interests of confidentiality, privacy or the best interests of the state should be appropriately invoked to prevent inspection, we hold that the officer or custodian may refuse inspection. Mathews v. Pyle, supra. Such discretionary refusal is subject to judicial scrutiny. A.R.S. § 39-121.02 provides that a person who has been denied access may appeal that denial by special action to superior court (subsection (A)), which may order that access be provided. If that court determines that access was wrongfully denied and that the custodian acted in bad faith or in an arbitrary or capricious manner, the court may also award legal costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, (subsection (B)). The statute provides that any person wrongfully denied access shall have a cause of action against the officer or public body for any resulting damages, (subsection (C)).

In conclusion, then, we hold that A.R.S. § 39-121.01(B) requires the keeping of records sufficient to provide the public with "knowledge" of all of the activities of a public officer and of the manner in which he conducts his office and performs his duty. For purposes of inspection and access, all records required to be made and maintained by § 39-121.01(B) and preserved by (C) are to be available for inspection under § 39-121 and copying under § 39-121.01(D), subject to the official's discretion to deny or restrict access where recognition of the interests of privacy, confidentiality, or the best interest of the state in carrying out its legitimate activities outweigh the general policy of open access. Any abuse in the denial of public access may be remedied under A.R.S. § 39-121.02, et seq.³

The Release of This Report was Privileged

^{16]} In the case at bench, we hold that the "offense report" was a public record for purposes of § 39-121, thus affirming the finding of the trial court and approving the opinion of the court of appeals. Absent a showing of malice, the release and publication of that report was protected against a defamation action by a qualified privilege. See Roscoe v. Schoolitz, 105 Ariz. 310, 464 P.2d 333 (1970). The trial court held that the Sheriff was protected by privilege because the offense report was a public record, which the Sheriff, as a public officer, was required to keep in the furtherance of his statutory duties, and as such, was open to the public. Therefore, the trial court reasoned, any publication of such reports was covered by an absolute *492 1247 privilege. However, for the express purpose of supplementing the findings of fact in the event that an appellate court would find an absolute privilege not to exist, the trial court made an additional finding that the evidence showed no ill-will or malice on the part of the Sheriff or his employee who actually permitted access to the report.

^{17]} ^{18]} There is no absolute privilege in Arizona for public officers and employees of the state and its political subdivisions. Portonova v. Wilkinson, 128 Ariz. 501, 503, 627 P.2d 232, 234 (1981). It would be anomalous to hold that the publication of records is accorded an absolute privilege where we hold that the public's right to inspect records is a qualified one. The holding of the court of appeals that the Sheriff's publication of the report was privileged does not expressly state whether that was an absolute or qualified privilege, but the court did note that there was no evidence of malice or ill-will. We hold that the Sheriff was protected by a qualified privilege here and that since there was no showing of ill-will or malice in the release of this report and the action was one for defamation only, the qualified privilege was properly invoked. The judgment entered on the directed verdict is affirmed. The opinion of the court of appeals is approved, as supplemented by this opinion.

Footnotes

- 1 Whether something is a "public record" in evidentiary terms is not necessarily co-extensive with those records available to the public for inspection under § 39-121. The definition of "public records" may be more narrow for purposes other than right of access or disclosure. We do not decide those issues today.
- 2 The court of appeals did not order in camera inspection of the police investigative reports in Church of Scientology v. City of Phoenix, supra, but rather instructed the trial court to make copies of the documents for the appellant. However, the court noted that the City of Phoenix Police Department never suggested that the documents in question revealed any confidential information sources or information gathering techniques, or that disclosure would involve any invasion of privacy. "Indeed appellee has never specifically articulated any potential harm likely to result from disclosure of the documents." 122 Ariz. at 339, 594 P.2d at 1035.
- 3 Access may also be limited by restrictions on commercial use (§ 39-121.03), and restrictions specifically imposed by law on certain records or documents.

Hi Don,

The attached letter is a follow up to a letter that appears to have been sent to you previously. I'm forwarding so that you're aware of it and can add it to the first letter.

Second, I was going to respond and send Mr. Kramer a letter to let him know we are in receipt of both letters and that they have been forwarded to appropriate staff for review. Is there anything else that you want me to add into the letter or do you think that will suffice?

Also, would you want a copy of the letter for your records?

Thanks and Happy New Year!

Subject: question RE: constituent letter

Good morning-

I've got a random question for you.

Do you recall SGO receiving a letter from an Eric Kramer sometime in mid-April of this year? He is from Pinetop, AZ.

I received a letter from him indicating that he's not received a response from our office and Liz within EXO believes that we did receive it and that she sent it to SGO.

The letter is regarding Sylvia Allen and an alleged breach of nepotism laws.

I am just trying to figure out what happened to his original letter so I can best respond to his current letter and thought I would check to see if you had an idea by chance.

Thanks!

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

I have not heard from you in the eight months since I wrote the attached letter documenting Sylvia Allen's breach of the state's nepotism laws concerning her actions to ... work for, suggest, arrange or be a party to the appointment of ... her husband and son-in-law to government jobs under her supervision.

Are we to assume that high-ranking Republicans are allowed to break the state's laws as long as you are the state's chief law enforcement officer ?

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Eric Kramer

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

Sylvia Allen, the president pro tem of the Arizona Senate, is openly and notoriously violating Arizona's statutes on nepotism.

As you know, Arizona law is quite clear on this point.

38-481. Employment of relatives; violation; classification; definition

A. It is unlawful, unless otherwise expressly provided by law, for an executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer to appoint or vote for appointment of any person related to him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree to any clerkship, office, position, employment or duty in any department of the state, district, county, city or municipal government of which such executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer is a member, when the salary, wages or compensation of such appointee is to be paid from public funds or fees of such office, or to appoint, vote for or agree to appoint, or to work for, suggest, arrange or be a party to the appointment of any person in consideration of the appointment of a person related to him within the degree provided by this section.

B. Any executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a class 2 misdemeanor.

C. The designation executive, legislative, ministerial or judicial officer includes all officials of the state, or of any county or incorporated city within the state, holding office either by election or appointment, and the heads of the departments of state, county or incorporated cities, officers and boards or managers of the universities.

Sen. Allen's violations of these statutes are a matter of public record.

Regarding Sen. Allen's husband, Richard Allen, these emails were obtained from Navajo County via a Freedom of Information request:

She also actively sought employment for her son-in-law, Tim Hunt, at the Navajo County Jail. This article is from the Holbrook Tribune, March 24, 2015, and quotes Navajo County Sheriff K.C. Clark.

“Senator Allen has repeatedly sought favor due to her position. She has interfered in investigations. She requested to have her personal road graded despite budget cuts and repeatedly approached me seeking employment for family members in the sheriff’s office,” stated Clark.

As you know, Arizona has statutes that prohibit criminals from holding public office.

Please let me know whether you intend to investigate this matter?

Thank you for your help.

Subject: Record retention law enforcement

All:

The State Library & Archives is working with law enforcement to address the record retention schedules for law enforcement related records that consist of recordings. Attached you will find the latest round which consists of 3 things:

- 1) The L&A draft
- 2) A memo responding to the draft from AACO and AACOP
- 3) The annotated version based upon the memo.

I am circulating this for two reasons:

- 1) It seems to me that a record is a record, regardless of its genesis, therefore I am not sure why we need a special set of schedules based upon the medium as it would seem the content is the determining factor.
- 2) As prosecutors, we may have some opinions on the proposals and if so, this is a good time to weigh in on them.

Please provide me your comments/concerns on the schedule and the proposed revision, together with specific reasoning. I will then draft a similar memo and run it by all of you before we send it out.

On December 17 I sent around to the Council a proposal for the general legal documents retention that ends with some questions from the L & A staff. You may want to give those a once over as well with the above in mind and we can approach it in the same way as above.

Can I get a response as early in the week of January 4 as we can?

Thanks,

Arizona Law Enforcement Legal Advisors Association (ALELAA)

DATE: December 9, 2015

SUBJECT: Joint Position Statement regarding General Records Retention Schedule for Law Enforcement Recordings

AACOP and ALELAA recognize that Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records (LAPR) personnel have expended substantial effort to create a law enforcement records series to cover records that will be created by law enforcement agencies' use of body-worn cameras. While the proposed retention schedule was well-considered, it does not adequately take into account the day-to-day realities faced by law enforcement agencies that must store and manage huge amounts of data created by body-worn and in-car cameras. For example, it is neither realistic nor desirable to mandate, by way of a retention schedule, that every video created with this equipment be viewed prior to any final disposition or destruction of the record. The adopted retention schedule must strike a balance between the public's right to access public records, law enforcement and prosecution needs, and the burden on taxpayers for the costs of retention and management of voluminous video records.

Because of the day-to-day and long reaching implications for law enforcement of the retention schedule, we have drafted an alternative retention schedule that addresses law enforcement's needs while preserving the spirit of LAPR's proposed retention schedule and considering stakeholder concerns expressed during the work group sessions. Our changes are summarized below.

- We modified the first paragraph of LAPR's proposed schedule to more accurately describe the records intended to be covered without referring to specific technology. Current technology may be obsolete within a few years and other technological tools may become available for law enforcement use.
- We deleted language discussing Arizona's claim statute (A.R.S. § 12-821.01) because, while accurate, it is not necessary to the retention schedule and other retention schedules do not contain similar statutory citations and explanations.
- We removed references to CCTV and license plate readers. These recordings are addressed by other record series and law enforcement has not experienced any ongoing issues with the current retention periods.

Leaving those types of recordings in their existing series simplifies the new record series, making it easier for the public to reference and understand.

- We removed policy language that did not further the public interest and is more appropriately determined by each agency in implementing the retention schedule. We also deleted conclusory language about what is or is not considered evidence. That conclusion should be left to each agency to determine on a case-by-case basis.
- We simplified the schedule to make it easier for law enforcement to apply and for the public to understand. We divided recordings into two categories: evidentiary and non-evidentiary. Evidentiary recordings must be retained until the disposition of the underlying case (disposition is defined in the Remarks column). Non-evidentiary recordings must be retained for 185 days. 185 days is a good minimum retention period for recordings that are not specifically related to an ongoing investigation or prosecution. This retention period is tied to the Legislature's determination that 180 days is an appropriate time frame to satisfy the public's interest in filing claims against public entities, it promotes open government, and it allows police agencies sufficient time to confirm whether any claims have been filed.

In short, our proposed schedule is streamlined for ease of application and understanding by police agencies and citizens, and follows a similar format to other police record series.

For the above reasons, AACOP and ALELAA jointly propose the attached retention schedule for law enforcement recordings and request that it be considered.

Division and Section Chiefs:

In connection with an examination of the financial statements for the State of Arizona by the Office of the Auditor General for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2015, please furnish a description and evaluation of material pending or threatened litigation, claims and assessments (excluding unasserted claims and assessments and Transportations Section's condemnation cases). In addition, please provide any unasserted claims and assessments involving matters for which you have been engaged and have devoted substantive attention on behalf of the State of Arizona, in the form of legal consultation or representation.

Your response need not include any matter involving potential losses or gains that is expected to have less than $1 million of effect on the financial statements unless the aggregate for all such individual amounts is more than $1 million. Your response should include matters that existed at June 30, 2015. Your response should state that it covers the entire period from June 30, 2015 to the response date.

Complete the attached Form A to report Threatened Litigation, Claims and Assessments and Form B to report Unasserted Claims or Assessments. If there are no pending threatened litigations, claims or assessments, or if there are no unasserted claims or assessments, please specifically state this in your response.

The Budget and Finance Section will be compiling the responses for the AGO and requests that you submit your responses electronically to me at Krystal.Gonzalez@azag.gov (cc Lizette.Morgan@azag.gov) on or before October 14, 2015 to ensure that the State's Financial Statements are issued timely. In addition, immediately prior to the issuance of the State's Financial Statements, the Auditor General's office will request an update. We expect the timing of that request to be around mid-December and would appreciate your support in keeping Forms A & B updated until the State's Financial Statements are issued.

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL MARK BRNOVICH
CRIMINAL DIVISION/OFFICE OF VICTIM SERVICES

MEMORANDUM

TO: Don Conrad, Criminal Division Chief
FROM: Kirstin Flores, Director
Amy Bocks, Program Manager
DATE: December 8, 2015
RE: Memorandum Requesting Increased Employee Salaries

The Office of Victim Services (OVS) requests salary increases for the six advocates assigned to the Phoenix and Tucson offices.

Employee	Position	New Funded Salary	Old Salary
Briana Bobertz	Lead Advocate	$43,890.00	$38,655.00
Marisol Villagran	Advocate	$38,116.00	$33,435.00
Brian Bickes	Advocate	$38,116.00	$33,435.00
Alexandra Rucker	Advocate	$38,116.00	$33,435.00
Lucrece Garrett	Advocate	$38,116.00	$33,435.00
Alberto Fimbres	Advocate	$38,116.00	$33,435.00

OVS management conducted a brief salary study in August 2015 and realized that advocates in the Attorney General's Office are paid less, sometimes significantly less, than other comparable agencies within the state. Crime victim advocates are at high risk for compassion fatigue and burnout, are often underpaid, and receive a low level of social recognition. OVS has six well-trained, compassionate, dedicated and efficient advocates and it is imperative to increase the advocates' salaries in order to aid in employee retention and morale.

During the Arizona Department of Public Safety's Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2016 Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Assistance grant application period, OVS requested increased funding for salaries and fringe benefits for the six advocates. On December 4, 2015, OVS learned that the funding for salaries and fringe benefits was approved at the requested rate. This means that funding is available for use, retroactive to October 1, 2015, to increase the salaries of the OVS advocates.

OVS requests that the salaries for the six advocates listed above be increased retroactively to the beginning of FFY2016, October 1, 2015.

Dawn, I don't know who Mr. Haritos is or why we are involved with him. Do you know what this is about? Is a lawyer in your group dealing with Haritos? WE stand ready to preserve what we need to but we'd like to do it in cooperation with the AG involved.

Don, I visited with Bethany Diaz about Mr. Haritos' preservation request (attached) and I understand John Abretske has placed a hold on the specified email accounts. I had a question as to whether or not we (SIS) need to image the hard drives for the same employees or how we should proceed with the content of the request.

Thanks-

Hi John,

Mr. Haritos is requesting that we preserve all records we have associated with him. His letter is attached but the request includes myself, Scot Teasdale, and Jerry Fries. I am not sure if we would need to extend this to anyone else based on how he's worded his request but I would assume so to be on the safe side.

Per our phone call, I will notify those that are on a litigation hold.

Thank you,

Bethany

Subject: RE: Request to preserve records

Bethany, you should obviously keep whatever records you have.

Haritos' lawsuit, if he files one, will presumably concern the documents that Abretske has already produced to you in response to Haritos' earlier public records requests, some of which documents were not produced to Haritos. Some of those records were apparently not given to Haritos because they concerned personal matters and not matters relating to the business of this office. I assume that you, with the help of Dennis Carpenter, kept separate copies of those documents that were produced to Haritos, and those that were not produced to him. The latter will be at issue in the lawsuit if it is filed, and they should obviously be preserved.

Haritos' 12/1 request to preserve letter goes far beyond those documents, however, requesting that the Office preserve all types of electronic data. The letter goes into technical computer matters that I know nothing about. It should be forwarded to John Abretske and inquiries should be made of John as to what Office policies are with respect to the preservation and destruction of electronic data. He should be instructed that all data relating to Haritos and Scot's and others' references to Haritos should be preserved. Presumably this Office has received preservation requests similar to this one in other matters, and John may have some protocols for effecting a hold along the lines requested in Haritos' 12/1 letter.

As to many of Haritos' other demands, several of which I'll highlight in an attachment to an email subsequent to this, I really have no idea what we should be doing. I believe the Office has established a committee to develop policies related to e-discovery matters such as this, and they may be able to provide some guidance. For example, on p. 4 of his letter, Haritos asks that with respect to Teasdale, Bethany and me, our ESI systems, media and devices should be removed from service and sequestered. If we deem that impractical, we should "forensically image" those items. He makes many technical requests, and I don't know to what extent this Office would be willing to comply. Again, others with more experience than I will need to be consulted.

A couple of final comments. Haritos obviously didn't draft this. In fact, it appears to be a slightly modified version of a document that some attorney mailed to a future defendant in a federal lawsuit. In the first complete paragraph on p. 2, the letter references the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and recent amendments to those rules. Any lawsuit alleging an agency's non-compliance with the State's public records laws should be filed in Maricopa County Superior Court, not federal court.

Second, this Office has an obligation to maintain public records in accord with State law. If someone requests public records, we have an obligation to produce them, subject to several exceptions. As far as I know, we have an obligation to produce them as they exist in the ordinary course. As far as I know, when John produced the stack of documents in response to Haritos' public records requests, he produced everything in our system as it existed at that time that was responsive. I think that is all that we are obligated to do under public records laws. The hard copies of what John produced represent the AG's documents that would be responsive to Haritos' public records request, and those that we refused to produce are the proper subject of a legal challenge. In my view, this is not a typical litigation matter in which metadata and changes to metadata might be of consequence. John presumably printed off everything that existed at the time, and that is the public record. That is what Haritos is entitled to, subject to certain exceptions. Whether metadata constitutes a public record is something that I have no knowledge or opinion on; that opinion would have to come from a public records lawyer.

Finally, as to whether you should respond to Haritos' letter, I don't know if we have a policy in this regard when we get similar "hold" letters. I know of nothing obligating us to do so. While we should do all that we have to do in terms of complying with the law, I suggest that we do nothing beyond that in terms of communicating with him. His MO is to endlessly harass people, and I would not fall all over myself assisting him.

Sorry for the rambling email. Call me if you have any questions or if you think I could be of assistance in working with John Abretske. Again, if you do respond to Haritos, given my lack of knowledge re: computer technical matters and my lack of knowledge of the Office's litigation hold and e-discovery response policies (if any), you may have to get assistance from others in preparing that response.

Ms. Diaz,

As I discussed before, I disagree with your assessment of my public records request with respect to what is deemed public records and what is deemed personal emails. Sending an email to your spouse stating that you'll be working late I do agree; working on a personal case that is supported by your office on taxpayer time I disagree this falls within your "personal use" policy thus the records I am requesting are public records. I do find it ironic that Mr. Brnovich ran against Mr. Horne under the platform of not using your office for "personal gain" when in reality this was nothing more than lip service to get votes.

I've attached a copy of my request not to destroy records. I will be sending this to you via certified mail tomorrow. My lawsuit will be filed before the end of the year. I look forward to my day in court.

John

Re: Request to preserve electronic data

As discussed in my last email to Ms. Bethany Diaz, I will be initiating a public records lawsuit against the Arizona Attorney General's Office; therefore, I request that you preserve all documents, tangible things and electronically stored information potentially relevant to the issues in this cause. I will be filing my public records lawsuit before the end of the year. As used in this document, "you" and "your" refers to Arizona Attorney General's Office, and its predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions or affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents, attorneys, accountants, employees, partners or other persons occupying similar positions or performing similar functions.

You should anticipate that much of the information subject to disclosure or responsive to discovery in this matter is stored on your current and former computer systems and other media and devices (including personal digital assistants, voice-messaging systems, online repositories and cell phones).

Electronically stored information (hereinafter "ESI") should be afforded the broadest possible definition and includes (by way of example and not as an exclusive list) potentially relevant information electronically, magnetically or optically stored as:

- Digital communications (e.g., e-mail, voice mail, instant messaging);
- Word processed documents (e.g., Word or WordPerfect documents and drafts);
- Spreadsheets and tables (e.g., Excel or Lotus 123 worksheets);
- Accounting Application Data (e.g., QuickBooks, Money, Peachtree data files);
- Image and Facsimile Files (e.g., .PDF, .TIFF, .JPG, .GIF images);
- Sound Recordings (e.g., .WAV and .MP3 files);
- Video and Animation (e.g., .AVI and .MOV files);
- Databases (e.g., Access, Oracle, SQL Server data, SAP);
- Contact and Relationship Management Data (e.g., Outlook, ACT!);
- Calendar and Diary Application Data (e.g., Outlook PST, Yahoo, blog tools);
- Online Access Data (e.g., Temporary Internet Files, History, Cookies);
- Presentations (e.g., PowerPoint, Corel Presentations)
- Network Access and Server Activity Logs;
- Project Management Application Data;
- Computer Aided Design/Drawing Files; and,
- Back Up and Archival Files (e.g., Zip, .GHO)

ESI resides not only in areas of electronic, magnetic and optical storage media reasonably accessible to you, but also in areas you may deem not reasonably accessible. You are obliged to preserve potentially relevant evidence from both these sources of ESI, even if you do not anticipate producing such ESI.

The demand that you preserve both accessible and inaccessible ESI is reasonable and necessary. Pursuant to amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that have been approved by the United States Supreme Court (eff. 12/1/06), you must identify all sources of ESI you decline to produce and demonstrate to the court why such sources are not reasonably accessible. For good cause shown, the court may then order production of the ESI, even if it finds that it is not reasonably accessible. Accordingly, even ESI that you deem reasonably inaccessible must be preserved in the interim so as not to deprive the plaintiffs of their right to secure the evidence or the Court of its right to adjudicate the issue.

Preservation Requires Immediate Intervention

You must act immediately to preserve potentially relevant ESI including, without limitation, information with the earlier of a Created or Last Modified date on or after August 30th, 2012 through the date of this demand and concerning:

1. The events and causes of action that will be described in a Complaint to be filed shortly;
2. ESI could be used to support claims or defenses in this case;
3. The files and emails related to my public records request that was denied by this office.
4. Per your policy, public records can reside on employees personal computer and from the emails you provided Teasdale has public records residing on his personal computer thus they were out of the reach of your "search".

Adequate preservation of ESI requires more than simply refraining from efforts to destroy or dispose of such evidence. You must also intervene to prevent loss due to routine operations and employ proper techniques and protocols suited to protection of ESI. Be advised that sources of ESI are altered and erased by continued use of your computers and other devices. Booting a drive, examining its contents or running any application will irretrievably alter the evidence it contains and may constitute unlawful spoliation of evidence. Consequently, alteration and erasure may result from your failure to act diligently and responsibly to prevent loss or corruption of ESI.

Nothing in this demand for preservation of ESI should be understood to diminish your concurrent obligation to preserve document, tangible things and other potentially relevant evidence.

Suspension of Routine Destruction

You are directed to immediately initiate a litigation hold for potentially relevant ESI, document and tangible things, and to act diligently and in good faith to secure and audit compliance with such litigation hold. You are further directed to immediately identify and modify or suspend features of your information systems and devices that, in routine operation, operate to cause the loss of potentially relevant ESI. Examples of such features and operations include:

- Purging the contents of e-mail repositories by age, capacity or other criteria;
- Using data or media wiping, disposal, erasure or encryption utilities or devices;
- Overwriting, erasing, destroying or discarding back up media;
- Re-signing, re-imaging or disposing of systems, servers, devices or media;
- Running antivirus or other programs effecting wholesale metadata alteration;
- Releasing or purging online storage repositories;
- Using metadata stripper utilities;
- Disabling server or IM logging; and,

- Executing drive or file defragmentation or compression programs.

Guard Against Deletion

You should anticipate that your employees, officers or others may seek to hide, destroy or alter ESI and act to prevent or guard against such actions. Especially where company machines have been used for Internet access or personal communications, you should anticipate that users may seek to delete or destroy information they regard as personal, confidential or embarrassing and, in so doing, may also delete or destroy potentially relevant ESI. This concern is not one unique to you or your employees and officers. It's simply an event that occurs with such regularity in electronic discovery efforts that any custodian of ESI and their counsel are obliged to anticipate and guard against its occurrence.

Preservation in Native Form

You should anticipate that certain ESI, including but not limited to spreadsheets and databases, will be sought in the form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained. Accordingly, you should preserve ESI in such native forms, and you should not select methods to preserve ESI that remove or degrade the ability to search your ESI by electronic means or make it difficult or burdensome to access or use the information efficiently in the litigation.

You should additionally refrain from actions that shift ESI from reasonably accessible media and forms to less accessible media and forms if the effect of such actions is to make such ESI not reasonably accessible.

Metadata

You should further anticipate the need to disclose and produce system and application metadata and act to preserve it. System metadata is information describing the history and characteristics of other ESI. This information is typically associated with tracking or managing an electronic file and often includes data reflecting a file's name, size, custodian, location and dates of creation and last modification or access. Application metadata is information automatically included or embedded in electronic files but which may not be apparent to a user, including deleted content, draft language, commentary, collaboration and distribution data and dates of creation and printing. Be advised that metadata may be overwritten or corrupted by careless handling or improper steps to preserve ESI. For electronic mail, metadata includes all header routing data and Base 64 encoded attachment data, in addition to the To, From, Subject, Received Date, CC and BCC fields.

Servers

With respect to servers like those used to manage electronic mail (e.g., Microsoft Exchange, Lotus Domino) or network storage (often called a user's "network share"), the complete contents of each user's network share and e-mail account should be preserved. There are several ways to preserve the contents of a server depending upon, e.g., its RAID configuration and whether it can be downed or must be online 24/7. If you question whether the preservation method you pursue is one that I will accept as sufficient, please call to discuss it.

Home Systems, Laptops, Online Accounts and Other ESI Venues

Though I expect that you will act swiftly to preserve data on office workstations and servers, you should also determine if any home or portable systems may contain potentially relevant data. To the extent that officers, board members or employees have sent or received potentially relevant e-mails or created or reviewed potentially relevant documents away from the office, you must preserve the contents of systems, devices and media used for these purposes (including not only potentially relevant data from portable and home computers, but also from portable thumb drives, CD-R disks and the user's PDA, smart phone, voice mailbox or other forms of ESI storage.). Similarly, if employees, officers or board members used online or browser-based e-mail accounts or services (such as AOL, Gmail, Yahoo Mail or the like) to send or receive potentially relevant messages and attachments, the contents of these account mailboxes (including Sent, Deleted and Archived Message folders) should be preserved.

Ancillary Preservation

You must preserve documents and other tangible items that may be required to access, interpret or search potentially relevant ESI, including logs, control sheets, specifications, indices, naming protocols, file lists, network diagrams, flow charts, instruction sheets, data entry forms, abbreviation keys, user ID and password rosters or the like.

You must preserve any passwords, keys or other authenticators required to access encrypted files or run applications, along with the installation disks, user manuals and license keys for applications required to access the ESI. You must preserve any cabling, drivers and hardware, other than a standard 3.5" floppy disk drive or standard CD or DVD optical disk drive, if needed to access or interpret media on which ESI is stored. This includes tape drives, bar code readers, Zip drives and other legacy or proprietary devices.

Paper Preservation of ESI is Inadequate

As hard copies do not preserve electronic searchability or metadata, they are not an adequate substitute for, or cumulative of, electronically stored versions. If information exists in both electronic and paper forms, you should preserve both forms.

Agents, Attorneys and Third Parties

Your preservation obligation extends beyond ESI in your care, possession or custody and includes ESI in the custody of others that is subject to your direction or control. Accordingly, you must notify any current or former agent, attorney, employee, custodian or contractor in possession of potentially relevant ESI to preserve such ESI to the full extent of your obligation to do so, and you must take reasonable steps to secure their compliance.

System Sequestration or Forensically Sound Imaging

I suggest that, with respect to Scot Teasdale, Bethany Diaz, and Jerry Fries that removing their ESI systems, media and devices from service and properly sequestering and protecting them may be an appropriate and cost-effective preservation step.

In the event you deem it impractical to sequester systems, media and devices, I believe that the breadth of preservation required, coupled with the modest number of systems implicated, dictates that forensically sound imaging of the systems, media and devices is expedient and cost effective. As I anticipate the need for forensic examination of one or more of the systems and the presence of relevant evidence in forensically accessible areas of the drives, I demand that you employ forensically sound ESI preservation methods. Failure to use such methods poses a significant threat of spoliation and data loss.

By "forensically sound," I mean duplication, for purposes of preservation, of all data stored on the evidence media while employing a proper chain of custody and using tools and methods that make no changes to the evidence and support authentication of the duplicate as a true and complete bit-for-bit image of the original. A forensically sound preservation method guards against changes to metadata evidence and preserves all parts of the electronic evidence, including in the so-called "unallocated clusters," holding deleted files.

Preservation Protocols

I am desirous of working with you to agree upon an acceptable protocol for forensically sound preservation and can supply a suitable protocol, if you will furnish an inventory of the systems and media to be preserved. Else, if you will promptly disclose the preservation protocol you intend to employ, perhaps I can identify any points of disagreement and resolve them. A successful and compliant ESI preservation effort requires expertise. If you do not currently have such expertise at your disposal, I urge you to engage the services of an expert in electronic evidence and computer forensics.

Do Not Delay Preservation

I'm available to discuss reasonable preservation steps; however, you should not defer preservation steps pending such discussions if ESI may be lost or corrupted as a consequence of delay. Should your failure to preserve potentially relevant evidence result in the corruption, loss or delay in production of evidence to which I am entitled, such failure would constitute spoliation of evidence, and I will not hesitate to seek sanctions. Confirmation of Compliance Please confirm by [DATE], that you have taken the steps outlined in this letter to preserve

ESI and tangible documents potentially relevant to this action

If you have not undertaken the steps outlined above, or have taken other actions, please describe what you have done to preserve potentially relevant evidence.

John Haritos

For your convenience, the following parking spaces are available: East Garage Parking Spaces #11, 12, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110 and 143 - or you may use any of the visitor parking spaces on the surface parking lot.

RSVP - Please reply by email no later than Wednesday, October 21, 2015, if you plan to attend both the Executive Training and Council Meeting. While it is not necessary to pre-register for the Executive Training, your RSVP will let us know to prepare your Council book in advance and include you in the headcount for lunch.

APAAC offers several other options for attending the Council Meeting (the Executive Training is "in person" only):

BY PHONE: The toll-free call-in number to appear telephonically is [REDACTED] and at the voice prompt enter your Meeting ID [REDACTED] followed by the # sign – the PIN is [REDACTED]

BY VIDEOCONFERENCE: Go to: [http://join.ucanytime.com/scopia/mt/apaac?ID=\[REDACTED\]](http://join.ucanytime.com/scopia/mt/apaac?ID=[REDACTED]) to join and use meeting ID: [REDACTED] the PIN is [REDACTED] (see SCOPIA meeting instructions at the end of this email).

BY PROXY: If you are unable to attend the meeting, either in person or by phone, you may submit a proxy form (attached) to Diana.Cooney@apaac.az.gov PRIOR to the start of the meeting. You may designate either a Council or a non-Council member to appear and vote on your behalf. Please ensure, however, that the person you designate will be attending the meeting.

MURDER IN THE PARK

Lessons Learned From An Innocent Project Run Amok

OCTOBER 23, 2015
9:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

"A Murder in the Park" is a must see documentary that meticulously uncovers the efforts of David Protes, the deceitful Northwestern journalism professor, who skillfully manipulated his students and the criminal justice system in order to release a guilty man from death row and frame an innocent man for a double homicide."

"The film is a jaw-dropping expose of corruption, intimidation, coercion, glory-seeking, and unabashed lack of journalism ethics. It is gut wrenching, totally riveting and skillfully tells a very complex story of gross injustice. The real heroine is our own fearless Anita Alvarez, Cook County State's Attorney, whose efforts restored humanity and justice."

Barbara LaWall
Pima County Attorney

This Executive Training will feature the documentary Murder in the Park, followed by a roundtable discussion lead by the Honorable Michael D. Jones, Maricopa County Superior Court (ret.).

POLICY STATEMENT ON SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

APAAC, as Arizona's prosecutor coordinator, recognizes that often criminal behaviors arise as the result of substance abuse and behavioral health challenges. We acknowledge that early interventions along with appropriate prevention and treatment measures and educational programs can and do reduce the burden on the criminal justice system. In those cases that result in a chargeable crime by a drug-involved individual APAAC supports intervention options directed to changing those behaviors, such as residential treatment, therapeutic community treatment, wrap-around services and court supervised drug monitoring.

It is crucial that prevention and treatment capacity, whether community or government based, is at a level appropriate to enable implementation of prison alternatives and available in both the urban and rural areas. Assessing and identifying offenders that can substantially benefit and have the capability to turn away from crime will positively impact the community and reduce incarceration. Where appropriate victims should be involved in the process.

Projections for FY2016 and FY2017:

FRS currently has 451 open cases in various stages of litigation. A number of these cases will potentially result in additional distributions for calendar year 2015, but on average there are approximately 290 distributions completed within a year, resulting in approximately $3,121,000 being distributed to the AG's RICO account. If this trend were to continue, 2016 could see 300 distributions, resulting in $3.5 million to the AG RICO account; however, the projections for 2017 could potentially level out as the number of older cases continue to diminish. A safe projection for 2017, if we continue to open cases at the current rate, would be within $3 million and potentially $3.25 million.

Why you should attend

Do laws that embody “naked economic protectionism” violate the equal protection clause? Should a protectionist legislative purpose alter or impact this office's duty to defend state laws and regulatory regimes? Should it?

Mr. Neily, a veteran national litigator on behalf of individuals seeking to vindicate their economic liberties will consider these issues and discuss his experiences.

Mark: Lisa provided me your comments.

Regarding 1, the review provided is the initial review so that you can triage those cases that do not belong with the AG for any reason(s) including a better placement with another, more appropriate agency. The language requires your approval. Your approval authorizes entry into the file Legal Files case management system. Your approval lets me know that you think it is appropriate for us to spend time and resources on an investigation, and while the COS does not ask for any written notice, you are the first line supervision alerted to a hot potato and thus informed so that you may pass along your concerns to me as you see fit. I don't see that it contradicts 3a.

I would agree that we could perhaps tune up the language in 3b (formerly 3a). Your comment is that it implies nothing should be done until the COS has been signed by me. It's not that exactly nothing should be done, but almost. What I really want is for there to be no external fact gathering from other than a complainant before I sign the COS. I want to be involved in determining that our inquiries will not set off political sirens like they have on occasions in the past. Except for opening the file in Legal Files, I don't want an investigation to proceed without my knowledge and approval. If you think appropriate, please provide me language that you believe would better reflect our process but insure the primary goal of obtaining division chief approval before we launch an investigation.

As for 3c (formerly 3b), yes, the Section Chiefs are familiar with the process set out. Admittedly the standard written there requires a judgement call on the part of the Agent or the Chief vis a vis a decision that "the investigation reaches a point that an AAG must be assigned to the case..." Sometimes that point is reached obviously such as when a GJ subpoena is needed. Other times are more subjective such as the need to get advice about proving a particular violation. Case assignments are made by the Section Chiefs. It is only rarely that I weigh in on attorney selection.

The updated procedures and COS is attached as well.

PHX-#73873-v2-FORM - SIS CASE OPENING SHEET.DOC

Mark: Lisa provided me your comments.

Regarding 1, the review provided is the initial review so that you can triage those cases that do not belong with the AG for any reason(s) including a better placement with another, more appropriate agency. The language requires your approval. Your approval authorizes entry into the file Legal Files case management system. Your approval lets me know that you think it is appropriate for us to spend time and resources on an investigation, and while the COS does not ask for any written notice, you are the first line supervision alerted to a hot potato and thus informed so that you may pass along your concerns to me as you see fit. I don't see that it contradicts 3a.

I would agree that we could perhaps tune up the language in 3b (formerly 3a). Your comment is that it implies nothing should be done until the COS has been signed by me. It's not that exactly nothing should be done, but almost. What I really want is for there to be no external fact gathering from other than a complainant before I sign the COS. I want to be involved in determining that our inquiries will not set off political sirens like they have on occasions in the past. Except for opening the file in Legal Files, I don't want an investigation to proceed without my knowledge and approval. If you think appropriate, please provide me language that you believe would better reflect our process but insure the primary goal of obtaining division chief approval before we launch an investigation.

As for 3c (formerly 3b), yes, the Section Chiefs are familiar with the process set out. Admittedly the standard written there requires a judgement call on the part of the Agent or the Chief vis a vis a decision that "the investigation reaches a point that an AAG must be assigned to the case..." Sometimes that point is reached obviously such as when a GJ subpoena is needed. Other times are more subjective such as the need to get advice about proving a particular violation. Case assignments are made by the Section Chiefs. It is only rarely that I weigh in on attorney selection.

The updated procedures and COS is attached as well.

SIS PROCESS FOR CASE OPENING SHEETS:

- 1) All new investigations must be first reviewed by the Chief Agent to determine that the matter is one appropriate to be investigated by the AGO. The criteria for such a decision should include, but not be limited to, a consideration of resources, legal jurisdiction, and/or the propriety of a referral to another agency. Upon determining that an investigation is appropriate to be opened, the Chief Agent shall give approval to enter the investigation into the Legal Files (LF) database and instruct the assigned Special Agent (SA) to create a Case Opening Sheet (COS) and forward it to SISAdmin email for opening in LF.
 - a. SIS Administrative staff will input into LF on the day received and/or no later than two days.
 - i. If the SA needs the case opened immediately, they must communicate that with the SIS OA.
 - b. Unless already discussed with a particular Section Chief, SAs will not input an AAG's name as assigned attorney. Otherwise, the AAG field is left blank for the Special Agent Supervisor (SAS) to discuss with the assigned Section Chief who provides an AAG assignment. AAG assignment does not have to be at the beginning of an investigation.
 - c. COS must contain the HDM#.
 - d. COS will be printed on yellow paper for review by SAS and Chief Agent.
 - e. Those SAs assigned to outside law enforcement task forces, must also comply with this process.
- 2) Once the case is opened in LF, the Chief Agent will review and sign the COSs.
 - a. The completed and signed COS shall be forwarded to the Chief Counsel of the Criminal Division for approval/disapproval.
 - b. COS will be given to the Division OA to ensure a quick turn-around in obtaining approval signature.
 - c. If the Chief Agent needs to discuss a COS with the Division Chief, he will do so immediately or at his weekly meeting.
- 3) Once the COSs are signed by the Division Chief, they will be returned to the SIS OA.
 - a. SISAdmin will immediately scan and send the completed COS to the assigned SA, Section OA, if an AAG is assigned, and upload it into LF.
 - b. SAs will not begin an investigation until they receive a completed COS, which has been reviewed/signed by the Chief Counsel of the Criminal Division or his designee.
 - c. Once the investigation reaches a point that an AAG must be assigned to the case, the SAS will discuss AAG assignment with the Section Chief, by contacting the Section OA to schedule a meeting.
 - d. The previously signed COS will be updated by SIS per the Section Chief's instruction regarding AAG assignment and forwarded to the Section OA for ensuring the prosecutor's COS is completed.
 - i. Reminder: In order to issue SGJ subpoenas, the AAG assigned must have a signed prosecution COS by the Division Chief.
- 4) If a case is opened under a particular Operation or a suspect name, but is later changed due to additional information found, SA will prepare a Case Modification Form (CMF).
 - a. Provide explanation as to why the case is being modified, ie, name of suspect's true identity was different than what was provided on the COS; or changing case name from an Operation name to the main suspect's name.
 - b. If additional suspects are added to the investigation, the CMF must contain all suspect information and include a brief synopsis of their involvement.
 - c. Never open a case under the victim's name.
 - d. CMF will be printed on salmon colored paper for review and signature by the SAS and Chief Agent. If this case is also assigned to an AAG, provide a copy to the Section OA.
- 5) SIS Administrative staff will upload into HDM and import to LF the signed COS and/or CMF. In addition, the COS and/or CMF in Word/PDF format must also be imported to LF.
 - a. File will be created and provided to the SA.

Subject: Startling turn of events in Colorado City today.

To those watching what is happening in Colorado City/Hildale;

Background:

Seth Cooke, Ron and Jinjer Cooke's brother, and brother-in law, had an agriculture lease agreement, along with Patrick Pipkin, from the UEPTrust, on 12 acres of land down by and along Short Creek, commonly known as the FMJ Zoo. It was properly signed by the UEPTrust's fiduciary, Bruce Wisan, and was a legal and binding contract, duly authorized by Judge Lindberg, whose court oversee's the United Effort Plan Trust.

There were people on the Zoo property without the permission of the UEPTrust, who owns the property. Consequently, Seth and Patrick legally posted the property, on all the gates and in many places on the Zoo's fences, with a "Notice to Vacate" in five days, as is done typically with commercial property in Arizona and according to the Arizona statute.

That time was legally up yesterday.

The end of the notice had this wording, "If you have any questions regarding this demand, please contact Prairie Farms LLC. We would like to talk to the occupants and see what your needs are and work something out with Prairie Farms LLC".

Sincerely,

Prairie Farms LLC

Seth Cooke

Since it appeared this morning, that there were still people there who hadn't contacted them in the last 6 days, though some had left, and since they had seen someone moving a fridge into the zoo, along with other belongings of a residential nature, and putting it in the tack shed, they called the Mohave County Sheriff's Office for help in enforcing their "Notice to Vacate".

Sergeant Nelson put together a task force of three Mohave County Sheriff's officers to enforce the demand. They met with Seth and Patrick, who had Andrew Chatwin there videoing everything that went on. They had some issues that have yet to be resolved, but they are a separate incident.

The important thing, is that when the Mohave County officer's left, everything was resolved. Seth and Patrick ended up giving Verelyn Young and his crew 3 hours to remove their private property, in addition to the 5 days they had already had. The flds man , Chad Johnson, claiming to be residing in the tack shed, worked out an agreement with Seth and Patrick to live in the shed etc..

Mohave County Sheriff's Officer's then cleared everyone out that wasn't supposed to be there and left the scene as it should be, so that Seth and Patrick could lock up their gates.

About 5 hours later, I was informed by Seth Cooke, that the entire watering system for the 12 acre property had been ruined and stolen during the 3 hours they had let the flds people there remove their personal property. I informed Bruce Wisan of the fact. Since this was an actual loss to the UEPTrust, he authorized me to investigate and document the theft of the water system, and any other vandalism, and turn it into the cops. I was to press charges for the violation of Judge Lindberg's injunction order, as well as destruction and theft of the property etc.. This was about five hours after Seth and Patrick had control of their property and everyone had left. They were fixing fences and securing their property with padlocks on the gates etc..

This is where it gets rather bizarre:

I arrived and looked at a small bit of the vandalized water system with Seth Cooke, Andrew Chatwin and Patrick Pipkin. It was bad and looked like the damages were going to be in the $1,000.00's of dollars. I then called the local police and officer D. R. Barlow was dispatched to the property to investigate the crime.

When he got there, rather than go with me and take a report of the ruined water system and stolen equipment, he told me he was going to arrest me. He said that Seth Cooke, Patrick Pipkin and Andrew Chatwin were all right to be there, but that I wasn't, and said I was trespassing. He said that Seth, Patrick and Andrew were guests of Chad Johnson, but that as "Guests", they had no right to invite me (I work for the Special Fiduciary who works for the court, essentially, the property owner) onto the property.

I called Mohave County dispatch and asked them to send at least one officer back to the property to help resolve this new conflict, instigated entirely by the Colorado City Marshal, D.R. Barlow. At the same time, this officer called his chief of police, Jerry Darger to find out what to do next.

When the Mohave County Sheriff's officer arrived (officer Portillo), he explained to the local city officer all that they had gone through this morning (he was there on the scene the entire time), but the local officer wouldn't accept the Mohave County Sheriff's Office determination that the zoo was commercial property. He wanted to keep talking to his chief of police, Jerry Darger , to get a different determination.

As our officer turned to go talk to his sergeant, officer Nelson, who had been there the whole morning with his task force, officer D.R. called his dispatch for police backup. Our officer spun around and said something like, " You realize we are on the same side don't you"? He then called Mohave County for back up, as I understood it.

Later, officer D.R. and officer Portillo explained to each other again the way things really were. I had clearly talked to D.R. about the letters from County Attorney James Schoppman concerning commercial property, but he would have none of those letters. He didn't have any interest in what the Mohave County Sheriff's Office and it's legal counsel had determined.

Officer Portillo then said that they (the two officers), would just have to agree to disagree. He said that Mr. Wyler has every right to be here at this property and asked officer Barlow if he was going to investigate the vandalism or not and take Mr. Wyler's report. He also got his sergeant, officer Nelson, on his speaker phone, who clearly told officer Barlow that his officer was taking the correct position on this matter.

Officer Barlow began the investigation of the damaged property. On the first little pasture we documented 35 sprinklers stolen and many of the pipe stands destroyed, as well as freshly destroyed sprinklers etc.. About then, 3 Washington County deputies arrived as back up for officer Portillo and local chief of police , Jerry Darger, arrived as backup for officer Barlow.

Shortly after that, another Mohave County officer, deputy Macia , arrived as backup for officer Portillo as well. Chief Darger said he was going to uphold his city attorney, Ken Brendel's position, that not only was Isaac trespassing, now Seth, Patrick and Andrew were trespassing as well. He said if we didn't leave now, he was going to have us all arrested. Officer Portillo said that he called his officer in charge, and he had said that they were not going to stop the local cops from arresting us, but that if we were arrested, they would gather evidence and be witnesses in the case, then told the local cops that their counsel was to not arrest any of us.

I called Bruce Wisan, owner of the property, and the man I work for. I told him the situation and that I was willing to be arrested if the local cops pushed it that far. Bruce basically told me that this type of egregious behavior by the local cops was going to be addressed by the D.O.J. and to let the local cops run me off the property, and stop me from being able to document the vandalism damage to the UEPTrust property etc.. He said he didn't want me arrested (essentially, this was all over a tack shed that wasn't worth the wages of the officers involved in the incident that day).

I told Bruce I would leave if the local officers told me too, even though the Mohave County Sheriff's officer's were saying I had every right to be there. Officer Jerry Darger then told all of us (Seth had already gone outside the fence by then to get paperwork for the officers) to leave the property or be arrested. I took my video camera and spare batteries from Andrew and left the property as requested, even though I knew it was wrong of them to request it of me.

Then I come back to the outside of the fence and continued to ask questions and present our argument from outside of the fence. I asked D.R. if he was recording all this, because I told him that the last time I was at an arrest like this (the Emil Fischer case), they had turned off their recorders. I knew, because the next day, when I requested the recording from the local police department, through a "Freedom of Information Request"; They said there was no recording. This is highly irregular, because they always record my interactions with them.

DR admitted to me, in front of the Mohave County officers , that he had turned off his recorder a while ago. I then asked him to turn it back on, as this arrest unfolded. He wouldn't say he would or wouldn't. I presume he didn't, even though he walked away.

I then witnessed and videoed officer's Jerry Darger and officer Daniel Roy Barlow arrest, first Andrew Chatwin, then Patrick Pipkin, for not leaving their property. I didn't hear the officer's reading them their Miranda rights, but they may have done it in the separate police vehicles, after they were cuffed, or on the way to to what we assumed was Purgatory Jail, in Utah.

I also witnessed the Mohave County Sheriff's officer's gathering evidence and videos of the arrest etc..

These local police officers took the word of an flds man, Chad Johnson, (Andrew's brother in law), claiming to be living in the zoos tack room, who couldn't prove an occupancy agreement from the Trust to live there, couldn't prove the water, or power, was in his name, wouldn't say who authorized him to be there at all, and couldn't prove that he had any right of any kind to be there at all. Additionally, they had the word of Seth and Patrick that a fridge had been brought in the previous day at 2:30 pm, and another lady saw them bringing personal items to the tack room when she was picking her children up from school yesterday.

They took the flds mans word over someone with full documentation, and proof they were shown, of every single legal step they had gone through to be there at this time. They also went against direct admonition from the Mohave County Sheriff's officers, that they shouldn't make this arrest.

Then I videoed local officer Curtis Cooke overseeing Streamline Automotive impounding Andrew's truck and hauling it away, to an impound yard I presume, while officer Portillo witnessed it. I also videoed Seth Cooke giving officer Cooke a key to their gate.

I later found out, through private investigator Sam Brower, that Andrew and Patrick had been booked into the Purgatory Jail, and wouldn't be able to face the judge until the next morning.

I think that switch is an excellent idea.

Also, if you and Mark would like to hire a civil investigator to replace Curatola (or the position vacated by Arvizu, depending upon how you look at it) we would strongly support that as well. (I imagine you have a number of open spots you are trying to fill).

Thank you for the email,

Paul,

I'd like to follow thru on a proposition we discussed some weeks ago. It still remains true that Izzy Fuentes wants to do criminal investigations and Dottie Conroy wants to do civil investigations. Izzy is currently assigned to do civil consumer and Dottie is assigned to criminal cases related to elderly victims. I would like to switch their assignments, moving Izzy to a criminal assignment in health care fraud and Dottie to civil consumer under Frank Arvizu's supervision.

I believe that Dottie has some civil matters on her plate now. She would continue to be responsible for the civil matters, leaving behind any criminal matters she has and assuming responsibility for Izzy's civil investigations. Criminal investigators will pick up on any criminal matters Conroy has at present.

What do you think about implementing this asap?
