YELLOW SHEET REPORT

COURT STILL REFUSING TO STOP THE STEAL

A Maricopa County Superior Court judge today dismissed one of two lawsuits stemming from the AZGOP'S January election, saying the internal affairs of the party aren't justiciable and the issue doesn't "implicate any Arizona or federal statute, nor does it involve a core Constitutional concern."

OPINION

The U.S. Senate's new maverick

No one better embodied the fierce independence of Arizona better than the maverick himself, the late U.S. Sen. John McCain, who was never afraid to buck his party to serve his state and protect American democracy.
