The purpose of this report is to identify the progression of custody and transfers of the ballots and ballot envelopes obtained from ballot box number 11 at the Cesar Chavez Cultural Center following the August 4, 2020 primary election.

At the closing of polls on August 4, 2020, ballot box number 11 was escorted to the Yuma County Recorder's Office.

August 10, 2020 - Ballots and ballot envelopes collected from the Yuma County Recorder's Office by Sgt. Hemstreet of the Yuma County Sheriff's Office and entered into the Sheriff's Office evidence section. Once entered the ballots and envelopes were taken to the Yuma Police Department and transferred to Forensic Technician Alex Palacios for latent fingerprint analysis.

September 22, 2020 - Ballots and envelopes collected from Yuma Police Department by Sgt. Hemstreet and transferred to Agent Ryan Furr at the Federal Bureau of Investigation Yuma Field Office.

October 28, 2020 - Ballots and envelopes transferred from FBI to Department of Public Safety Phoenix Crime Lab by Yuma County Sheriff's Office.

December 1, 2020 - Ballots and envelopes transferred from Department of Public Safety Phoenix Crime Lab to Department of Public Safety Lake Havasu City Crime Lab by DPS technician.

Upon arrival at the DPS Lake Havasu City Crime Lab Forensic Technician Kylie Trebes began latent fingerprint analysis.
